26th Sunday Ordinary Time

First Reading Num 11.25-29 The Lord empowered seventy elders with the gift of prophecy. Some complained, but Moses replied that it would be even more wonderful if all the peoples were prophets.

Second Reading Jas 5.1-6 James deplores the injustice committed by the rich. He speaks of their pending miseries, their wanton luxury, wages withheld from workers. All these witness to their sin.

Gospel Mk 9.38-43, 45, 47-48 Jesus reminds his followers that nothing done in his name will go unrewarded. But anyone who deceives a simple believer will be severely punished.

Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
 may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
 May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
 May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
 To you our God, eternally blessed,
 be glory and praise for ever.
 Amen.

Upcoming Events for young people

The Send | 23 November 2024

We are seeking expressions of interest for The Send – A national ecumenical reanimation of Jesus' Great Commissioning in Aotearoa New Zealand. This happens on the Feast of Christ the King and there will be a massive Catholic young church presence at this event. See here for the promo video and more details -
